am no longer a theatrical good thing, semetimes called an 'angel.' I have reformed, and now I will take up shows as a gold business proposition There is something fascinating about this 'angel' business, and it appeals to a young man with plenty of money. The Bushterfit life of it has left me, and now I want dollar for dollar, keen manage-

Thus to-day spoke M. Sellers Largey the young millionaire banker and mine owner of Butte, Mon., who has lost $200,000 in theatrical productions in the last three years. He is said to have been the biggest losing 'angel' on record. As great an amount has been lost before by theatrical managers, but for the "angel" class.

Largey, who is young and a rammar financed by Largey for Miss Blake, also the amounts dropped in the ventures: New Jersey courts yesterday to obtain the appointment of a temporary receiver of the Will J.
